President R.A. Falconer, LL.D., C.M.G.,
University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario.

Dear President Falconer,-

On behalf of the University of Manitoba, I desire to express our appreciation of your kindness in representing your University at the Inauguration of President MacLean. Your exceedingly able and thoughtful address at the University Club Dinner was greatly appreciated by the authorities of the University and by all of the large audience which was fortunate enough to listen to it. Certain it is that your various addresses from time to time delivered in Winnipeg, will be of very great value in determining public opinion regarding University development in this Province.

Thanking you very heartily, and with very great regard, I am

Yours truly,

Frank Allen

Professor F. Allan,

University of Manitoba,

Winnipeg, Man.

My dear Professor Allan:

Many thanks for your kind letter thanking me for going to the Inauguration of President Maclean. I enjoyed my visit very much, though it was so short, and I am glad to have the impression so powerfully made upon me that under the leadership of President Maclean the University of Manitoba is likely to be very prosperous. I have never on my visits to Winnipeg been so pleased by the condition of affairs with regard to the University.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
